

Acheson Flays Critics Of U. S. Foreign Policy

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson has slapped a "prescription-for-disaster" label on using force as a means of aiding countries under Russia's domination.

Assailing critics of the administration's foreign policy as men with "their hands on the horn and their feet on the brakes," Acheson declared last night:

"Our position in the world calls for responsibility, not only by officials, but by all of us. ... We cannot dictate, we cannot be irresponsible, if we are to fulfill the mission of leadership among free peoples."

He spoke at the convention of the AFL International Association of Machinists.

Peaceful Liberation

In New York John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser, said neither he nor Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower contemplated a "war of liberation" when they recommended a different foreign policy in Eastern Europe.

The republican presidential nominee recently said the United States should not rest until the Communist-dominated countries of Eastern Europe are liberated. Later he told the American Legion Convention in New York he was advocating only peaceful measures.

Twisted By Truman

Dulles, in a radio interview, blamed "President Truman's misinterpretations" for any alarm Eisenhower's Legion speech might have caused in Europe. The speech had been interpreted by the president as increasing the possibility of war.

Dulles cited Yugoslavia's withdrawal from Russia's domination as the type of "split-offs" the U. S. should work for. He also mentioned economic measures, internal dissension in Communist-enslaved countries and radio broadcasts. He criticized present foreign policy planning as inadequate.

Jail Switch Sets Wrong Guy Free

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — A switch in clothes, a switch in prison cells and a switch in jail guards resulted in the wrong man getting his freedom from Northampton County prison here.

Here's the story as Warden E. C. Gackenbach tells it:

State police arrested Lewis Rosico, 19, of Detroit, his wife, Irene, 18, and a friend, Robert Van Valen, 21, Scranton, Pa., in nearby Portland Tuesday on charges of stealing $30 from a gas station cash drawer while the attendant filled their car with gasoline.

After a hearing, Justice of the Peace Clifford Sebring said he'd free the trio if they reimbursed the gas station and paid court costs. However, he added that Rosico would have to remain in custody because he was reported AWOL from the Lackland (Tex.) Air Force Base.

The $30 and costs were paid Wednesday night and Van Valen and Mrs. Rosico were released.

Last night, 24 hours later, the warden disclosed that the two men had changed clothes and switched cells shortly after they were placed in the jail Wednesday afternoon. The cell doors are not locked until evening. Guards, who came on in the evening, did not know the identity of the two men except to which cell each was in.

Van Valen is being held without bail on a charge of aiding and abetting a prison break.

Stevensons Get Along Well With Warrens

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Stevensons and the Warrens seem to get along pretty well together.

Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic standard bearer, praised California's Gov. Earl Warren in both his speeches here yesterday.

And the Illinois governor's son, Borden, 20, a Harvard sophomore, wound up the day taking one of Warren's daughters, Dorothy, 21, to dinner.

Hundreds Homeless After Texas Flood; Five Persons Dead

BOERNE, Tex. (AP) — Streams were receding in this fabled hill country of Southwest Texas today after flooding rivers and creeks left five persons dead, two missing and hundreds homeless following drought-breaking rains.

But downstream, outside the hill country, Luling on the San Marcos River was reported to be in trouble. The Department of Public Safety said an undetermined number of people were in danger in the area and dispatched amphibious equipment to the scene.

Livestock Drowned

Downpours that measured up to 23 inches in 24 hours had sent roaring torrents down river and creek beds that had been dusty and cracked. Highway and railroad bridges were washed out, trains and buses stalled, livestock drowned, low-lying areas flooded, communications downed and residents were sent scurrying for roof tops and high ground. There was no estimate of damage from official sources but it was expected to be high. The rains were beneficial to grazing lands but too late to help drought-ridden cotton and grain.

Train Stalled

Helicopters and rowboats were used to take about 100 passengers from a stalled Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad train at Solms, south of New Braunfels. No one was injured. The 'copters also lifted stranded residents from the roof-tops of their homes.

At least five towns in the Southwest and South Central Texas areas — old stomping grounds of Indian-conquering, gold-hunting Francisco Coronado and his Spanish legions — had been isolated by the flood waters. Department of Public Safety officials said disrupted communications made it uncertain whether there were still towns in danger of further damage.

Polio Strikes Eight In Nebraska Family; Eldest Son Dead

MORRILL, Neb. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers remained in virtual seclusion in their silent farm home today, burdened with grief over the death of their eldest son and anxiety over their seven other children, all stricken with polio.

They could hardly speak as they went to a funeral home last night to view the body of their dead son, Robert Eugene, 11.

Robert died Wednesday, less than 24 hours after he had joined his 5-year-old sister, Janet, in the pothole of a Scottsbluff, Neb., hospital.

Neighbors Help

Private funeral services for Robert were to be held this afternoon.

"Everyone is just wonderful," said the 41-year-old father as he haltingly told how neighbors and civic organizations had quietly moved in to help and to share the financial burden that has been placed upon the income of his 120-acre farm and his work as a part-time laborer.

He told how Dr. E. E. Anderson of Lyman, the family doctor, had stayed with Robert from the time the boy was hospitalized until his death, and how the doctor has remained almost constantly with the other Rogers children since then.

Mother Terrified

The mother, obviously terrified, could scarcely speak.

Dr. Anderson said he had not had time to analyze the case histories of the stricken family, but he pointed out that they lived in a sparsely settled area with few outside contacts and that the children had not yet started to school.

The seven children in the hospital still did not know today that their brother was dead. As soon as the parents were told Robert had died, they quickly took the other children to the hospital for examinations without telling them the sad news.

The children were placed in the isolation ward and since then the parents have seen them only once — through the doors of the isolation ward.

All Improving

The only comforting word the grief-stricken couple has had is a hospital report late last night that all seven children are improving — even 5-year-old Janet, who had been critically ill.

Although polio struck all eight of the Rogers children, it is not a record for polio cases in a single family.

At Mapleton, Ia., 11 of the 14 children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thiel have had polio this summer. Only one of the 12 children still at home escaped the disease. Two still are hospitalized.

Voters Blamed For Corruption By Stevenson

By RELMAN MORIN

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov. Adlai Stevenson went on the offensive today with a denial, framed in his strongest language, that Democrats alone are responsible for corruption and misconduct in the federal government.

"Whose fault is it," he asked, "that we get what we deserve in government?"

And his answer was: "It is the fault of you, the people. Your public servants serve you right; indeed often they serve you better than your apathy and indifference deserves."

Golden Future Promised

This was the core of Stevenson's answer to one of the central issues in the battle for the presidency. He quoted his Republican opponent as saying it is "the only issue."

Stevenson devoted a whole speech to it in Los Angeles yesterday. In a second speech here, he painted a picture of the United States 20 years from now, promised a golden future, and said of the Republicans:

"I don't care how many come to our side, but they ought to watch the speed limit."

Harrison said the Reds made no mention of the surrender at today's armistice session.

But North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist delegate, again accused the Allies of murdering Red prisoners of war.

Harrison replied with another offer for the Communists to verify for themselves the no-reparation sentiment among Communist soldiers captured by the Allies.

Heated Korea Truce Talks Flop; Recess Called For Week

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — U. N. negotiators today demanded and got a seventh straight week-long recess in the Korean armistice talks.

No progress on the truce-breaking issue of prisoner exchange was reported at a heated 32-minute session — the first since Sept. 4. The next meeting was set for Sept. 20.

The calm at the Panmunjom neutral zone was shattered late yesterday when a Communist soldier crashed roadblocks in a 45-mile-an-hour dash to surrender to U. S. military police.

Reds Charge Murder

Told of this second Communist surrender in a week near Panmunjom, Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior U. N. truce delegate, smiled:

"I don't care how many come to our side, but they ought to watch the speed limit."

Harrison said the Reds made no mention of the surrender at today's armistice session.

But North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist delegate, again accused the Allies of murdering Red prisoners of war.

Big Spender Held For Tax Evasion

By WILTON WYNNE

BEIRUT (AP) — Jet planes and tanks are the way to the heart of Syria's military dictator.

American diplomats in this area are beginning to realize that unless that path is taken, the heart of Syrian strong man Col. Edib Shishinsky will continue to be cold toward the United States.

Bright Spot In Arabia

In many respects, Col. Shishinsky is a godsend for the West. His coup last December overthrew a regime which sought to reject outright a Western-sponsored Middle East Command in favor of a Soviet alliance.

Shishinsky has repudiated Syria's leftists and produced the kind of political stability which must precede co-operation with the West. A high-ranking State Department official recently named Syria as the brightest spot for Western hopes in the Arab world.

On the other hand, Syria has proved just about the toughest Arab country to deal with in attempts at Arab-American co-operation. Syria is the only Arab state which has not signed a Point Four agreement. An American official in Damascus recently moaned, "It seems utterly impossible to persuade Syria to agree to any economic program of mutual benefit to Syria and the United States."

Afraid of Israel

In Brooklyn yesterday, a special federal grand jury indicted Bolich. It accused him of cheating the revenue bureau out of $7,444 in personal income taxes. It said he paid $6,883 taxes on reported income of $54,771 from 1946 through 1950, when the total should have been $83,314 and the taxes $14,328.

If convicted, Bolich would face a possible maximum penalty of 25 years imprisonment and a $50,000 fine.

Commenting on the grand jury's action, Bolich said:

"This indictment is the result of a political campaign. So far, there has been only one side of the story told. I have never had the opportunity to present my side. I will stand trial and vindicate myself when the time comes."

Grandstand Burns But State Fair Goes On At Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The "big show" went on as scheduled today despite the fire which routed 3,000 spectators and did an estimated $80,000 damage to the state fairgrounds grandstand yesterday.

There were no casualties.

A late summer wind fed the hungry sparks from a burning cigarette lodged between planks and the dry timbers of the 50-year-old structure, and caused the onlookers of a free water carnival to scramble for safety.

When the fire began, the State Fair Board was in session, discussing fireproofing plans for the new fairgrounds.

Accused Of Bribe

DETROIT (AP) — Dominique Albertine, 45, an importer from Marseilles, France, stood mute in Federal Court here Thursday on a charge of offering a $10,000 bribe to a U. S. immigration official. He was placed under $5,000 bond to await trial. He was arrested Sept. 4 while allegedly attempting to smuggle goods from Detroit to Windsor in a boat and is accused of offering the bribe for freedom.

Shocks Kill Six

BURGOS, Spain (AP) — High voltage shocks from a burning transformer killed six persons last night and injured 30 others in the village of Vilviestre del Pinar. The victims received the shocks while trying to switch off the lights in their homes after the burning transformer had suddenly stepped up the current.

Senator Agrees With Nominee On Main Issues

NEW YORK (AP) — Senator Robert A. Taft said today that he and General Dwight D. Eisenhower are in substantial agreement on all issues and that he will "speak anywhere to the extent of my ability" to further the Republican presidential nominee's campaign.

Sen. Taft said he is convinced that Eisenhower "will carry out the policies of the Republican platform."

He said he was "completely satisfied" that Eisenhower would give the United States a good administration.

Tatt also said he is convinced Eisenhower believes in the principles of a statement adopted by the Republican steering committee in Congress.

He told a news conference:

"I cannot say I agree with all of Gen. Eisenhower's views on foreign policy but our differences are merely differences of degree."

Later, in answer to a question, he said the degree was largely a matter of spending. He declined to enlarge, saying he would discuss his views of foreign policy in his own speeches.

First Since Convention

Today's breakfast conference at Eisenhauer's Columbia University home was the first face-to-face meeting of the two since Eisenhauer defeated Taft for the nomination in Chicago last July.

Delta Now Has 27 Polio Cases

Delta County now has 27 cases of poliomyelitis, of a total of 79 in Upper Michigan, according to figures released today by the Delta-Menominee Health department.

During the past week, four new Delta county cases were reported. They were Mrs. Harlan Clark, Billy Cannon and John Dettman of Gladstone and (Michigan) Richard Bartlett of Rock.

Latest reports filed with the health department reveal that in one Nahma family, that of the Joseph Labadie, all four children had the polio virus. One of the youngsters, Robert Labadie, 9, is receiving treatment at St. Luke hospital in Marquette. The others were cared for at home by Mrs. Labadie, the former Patricia Tobin, a graduate of St. Mary hospital school of nursing, Detroit.

Two Back in School

The Labadie took their children to Marquette Sept. 5, after they were examined by a Nahma physician. Previously the youngsters had had headaches and some fever. All were found to have had the polio virus. The oldest, Joan, who is 10, and William, 5, have recovered and are now back in school. William had had some tightness of back muscles earlier. Robert, who is at Marquette, has involvement of the right arm and right leg, but no paralysis. Mary, who is 22 months of age, will return to Marquette tomorrow for examination. She had a left leg involvement, but no paralysis. The children at home were cared for by their mother, who applied hot baths and other treatments recommended by Marquette physicians.

The infectious period of the disease was over when the Labadie children were examined last week at Marquette. The hospital there is crowded, according to reports by parents. Wherever possible, the children are dismissed as soon as practicable to make room available for new patients.

Decline in Cases

During the week ending August 22, the state of Michigan had the highest number of polio cases reported. This state had 300, of 3503 reported throughout the United States. Illinois was second highest and Iowa third. Delta County had nine new cases reported during this week, the peak for any week since the outbreak of the disease here.

The first decrease in polio reported per week, since the end of June, in the state of Michigan was reported for the week ending August 29. The number of cases reported decreased to 286 that week. This was higher than for the same week in 1949, but the cumulative total of cases for the year at this time was less than the 1949 figure by 127.

Upper Michigan's 79 cases this year is the highest since 1940, when 155 cases were reported. In 1951, there were 39 polio cases; in 1950, 52. In 1949, Upper Michigan had 105 cases. Menominee county has had eight cases this year; Schoolcraft, three, and Delta 27, highest in the peninsula.

Two U. P. Deaths

Gladstone has had 16 of the 27 reported cases from Delta County, two this week. The condition of Mrs. Harlan Clark is reported good, but she has slight weakness in one leg. Francis Bratonia, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bratonia, was returned to his home from St. Luke's this week.

Two Upper Michigan children, including Roger Belanger, 7, of Gladstone, died of the disease.

The Delta County cases, in addition to the Belanger child, are as follows:

M&LS Roundhouse Razed By Fire At Manistique

MANISTIQUE — The roundhouse of the Manistique & Lake Superior Railroad, two locomotives, two track cars and miscellaneous tools were virtually destroyed by fire early today.

George Stephens, M. & L. S. superintendent, estimated the loss at "several thousands of dollars."

The fire was reported at 4:16 a. m. today to the Manistique fire department. Its cause has not been determined.

To Borrow Locomotive

Today the line, subsidiary of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, was without a locomotive for use on its approximately 50 miles of track that connects with other railroad lines at Shingleton.

Supt. Stephens said a borrowed locomotive is expected to be received from the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railroad company tomorrow. Delivery of a new diesel locomotive to the Manistique & Lake Superior Railroad is expected early in October.

The roundhouse, located off North First and Deer Streets, and attached building used as a supply house were completely gutted by the blaze. The loss included the following equipment:

Two locomotives, one Dodge truck, one track motorcar, and miscellaneous tools in the supply house.

One of the locomotives was in storage in the roundhouse with the fires out waiting inspection; the other had been recently inspected and had entered the roundhouse at 1 a. m. today from the run.

The fire had gained considerable headway when it was discovered by Everett Anderson of North Houghton Ave., who awakened Fred Hinkson, 226 North Houghton, to telephone the fire department.

The building was a mass of flames when the 12 volunteers and five regulars and two fire trucks arrived to fight the fire. Firemen stayed on duty there more than three hours.

Rebuilding Not Decided

Several blasts in the roundhouse during the course of the fire were believed by firemen to have been caused by the explosion of lubricating machinery on the locomotives. The wood-frame buildings were almost completely destroyed, with only a few charred timbers remaining.

The roundhouse was built about 20 years ago following a fire in which five locomotives were destroyed. One locomotive was saved at that time, and was one of the two burned in today's blaze. Both locomotives were about 50 years old.

Supt. Stephens said that at this time there has been no decision regarding rebuilding of the roundhouse.

Barbershoppers Picnic At Wells Park Sunday

Arrangements have been completed for a family picnic of all barbershop singers from the western half of the Upper Peninsula, including Menominee and Marquette, to be held Sunday afternoon at Wells Park, near Cedar River on highway M-35.

The Escanaba barbershop chapter is the host for the annual event this year, and a full turnout of local members and their families from Escanaba and Gladstone is expected. Iron Mountain chapter has sent word that they are coming with a big delegation, and there will be other groups from the Twin Cities and from the Ishpeming-Marquette area.

Family picnic lunches will be in order, and refreshments will be served by the Escanaba hosts. Featuring the afternoon program will be chorus and quartet contests. The Bay de Noc chorus from the Escanaba chapter, winners of the chorus trophy last year at Iron Mountain, will be ready to defend their title.

Local committees picked to run the show at Wells Park Sunday include:

Registration—Dick Schmeltzer, Ken Thompson, Dan Danielson.

Refreshments—Luther Krantz, Mike O'Donnell, Nick Bink, Milt Lindblad, Ed LaCosse, Don Grenfell, Norman Dahike, Fritz Provencher, Lambert Peterson, Ollie Nelson.

Program and entertainment—Sam Ham, Ken Thompson, Art Jensen, Wallace Cameron, Noble Swenson, John Collins, Ed Olson.

A appeal today was voiced by the Delta County Chapter American Red Cross, for shoes and clothing for children in the families of two Delta county war veterans. The fathers are ill in the hospital.

To start school the children need shoes and clothing in the following sizes:

Girl, age 6, size 11 shoe; boys, ages 4, 12 and 14, wearing shoes size 7, 3 1/2 and 4 1/2, respectively.

Articles to be donated may be brought to the Red Cross office, or the office may be notified by telephoning No. 97.

County Chest Okeh Budgets

Directors of the Delta County Community Chest Council yesterday approved budgets of four agencies participating in the 1952 campaign and tabled two others pending procurement of more detailed information concerning budget requests.

The committees in charge are as follows: general chairman, Mrs. Walter McClintock; dinner, Mrs. Francis Finlan; publicity, Mrs. Joseph LeDuc; dinner tickets, Miss Josephine Coaster; apron booth, Mrs. George Harris and Mrs. Victoria Pepin; novelty and fish pond, Mrs. Ed Oulette and Mrs. Daniel Molnar; "tiny" aprons, Mrs. Ralph Webber. Men of the parish will handle games and other concessions.

The 1952 campaign for funds with which to carry out health, welfare and recreation programs of participating agencies in 1953 will get underway October 1. Advance gifts and industrial drives will start on that date, and the main drive will start October 15.

The campaign quota for the county is $20,000, the same as last year. Budgets approved at the council directors' meeting in the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce office yesterday were Michigan Children's Aid, $750; Cod Liver Oil Fund, $425; Salvation Army, $5,000, and Boy Scouts, $8,100.

Action on the Girl Scout budget, which proposed an increase from $2,195 to $3,050, was deferred until next Monday afternoon when a detailed explanation will be made and a report made of the balance on hand. The Camp Fire Girl budget request was tabled until Monday pending a report of the balance on hand.

The Boy Scout budget was approved with the understanding that "other communities put forth similar effort to maintain the Boy Scout program toward the end that equity will exist among the five Boy Scout districts in the Upper Peninsula."

Cuban Ex-President Plans To Run Again

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Ramon Grau San Martin, former president of Cuba, says he is ready to run in the November, 1953, presidential elections.

Grau's opponents charge he has made a deal with President Fulgencio Batista to provide token opposition to Batista in the race.

Grau left the presidency in 1948. His successor, Carlos Prio Socarras, was ousted by Batista in a revolution last March.

Bank Examiner Office In U. P.

MARQUETTE—An office is being opened in Marquette, by men who will be in charge of the examination of national banks in the Upper Peninsula.

The comptroller of the currency has authorized the establishment in Marquette of a sub-district office as headquarters for the staff of national bank examiners who examine national banks in the Upper Peninsula.

The regional district office in Minneapolis is in charge of examination of all national banks in the Ninth Federal Reserve District.

C. B. Upman, Minneapolis, is the chief national bank examiner for this district. Other sub-district offices are maintained in Duluth, Minn.; Mankato, Minn.; Fargo, N. D.; Sioux Falls, S. D.; and Billings, Mont.

Ray Conley In Charge

The examiner in charge in Marquette will be Ray T. Conley, who is moving here with his family. He has previously been located in Fargo.

Formerly with the Duluth National Bank, Conley has been with the national examining force since 1945.

On his staff in Marquette will be Richard L. Curtis, Marvin D. Hoffman and Burton J. Iverson.

Curtis was formerly with the Northwest Security National Bank of Sioux Falls.

Helpful To Banks

Hoffman was, until recently, assistant cashier of the Worthington National Bank, Worthington, Minn., and Iverson was cashier of the Farmers State Bank of West Concord, Minn.

Heretofore, part of the Upper Peninsula national banks have been examined by Duluth examiners, and others by Minneapolis examiners.

It is felt that the closer relationship that can be maintained by having resident examiner in the area will be mutually helpful to the banks and the comptroller's office.

Conley and his staff have taken an office in the Harlow Block. Conley and Hoffman have already established residence here.

Tibetans anticipated Darwin by long ago claiming descent from a monkey. This legendary forebear, say Tibetan chronicles, was actually an incarnation of the compassionate Spirit. He fed his six offspring on sacred grain, with the result that gradually their tails became shorter and they turned into men—the first Tibetans.

Enrollment In Kingsford Down

KINGSFORD — Enrollment in the Breitung township schools, which were opened Monday, has dropped by 153 students compared with the closing of schools in June, according to A. T. Allen, superintendent.

Yesterday, there were 1,470 students enrolled in five schools, compared with 1,623 on June 6, when schools were closed for the summer vacation.

However, the loss is greater in comparison with enrollment figures at the September opening last year. Last September, 1,731 were enrolled, compared with the current 1,470, making a total loss of 261 during the year.

Moderate Loss

Superintendent Allen said the loss since June 6 is not as heavy as anticipated. Due to the out-migration of former Ford workers, a survey was taken in June and revealed that the expected September enrollment would drop by about 174.

Figures announced today show enrollment gains in two of the five schools — Quinnesec and Garden Village. Quinnesec went from 203 in June to 212. Garden Village jumped from 259 in June 362.

The biggest losses were at the Roosevelt and the high school.

neer of the department.

In closing, Karas urges that "the county should start investing in its parks at a rate which will at least provide for adequate sanitation and housekeeping."

The finance committee is now receiving 1953 budget requests from all county departments. In its October meeting, the board of supervisors will act on the budgets which will have been perused and approved or revised by the finance committee.

Lunch Program Is Resumed, Ethel Allen, Director

HERMANVILLE — The Hermansville school lunch program got under way on Wednesday, under the direction of Ethel Allen, who is serving her third year of school lunch supervision. The program started under way in October, 1950.

Under the able supervision of Miss Allen, the school lunch program cost to the student body and teachers has been kept at a minimum. A 10c charge for students was made when the program started. This was later raised to 12c and then to 13c. The student lunch cost this year is set at 15c. The high cost of food may necessitate a slight increase during the year.

Assistants are as follows: ticket sales, Jack Gosling, commodities, John Kuhnhen, keeper of records, Queenie Doran. Volunteer students aid in the kitchen and the dining room. The high school teachers act as a committee for the arrangement of a schedule for student help.

More than two-thirds of the total student body participate in the school lunch program. This program is one of the finest school activities promoted and supported by the local board of education.

School Band at Daggett

The Hermansville School Band journeyed to Daggett Sunday evening, Sept. 7, to participate in the 4-H Fair activities. The band cost this year is set at 15c. The der direction of Richard Luck provided music for the evening. The Majorettes under the direction of Betty Carron also performed. Fred Gamache, bus driver, transported the students.

The band will participate in the Lakes States Logging convention parade at Escanaba September 20.

Ballots For Soldiers Will Help Boost Vote In Nov. 4 Election

If the relatives of men and women in the armed forces want to assure them a vote in the coming presidential election, they must make application for a ballot for them.

This is done at the office of clerk of the governmental unit in which the man or woman in service maintained residence. In other words, apply to your city clerk or township clerk.

Requiring the relatives to make application for a ballot for those in service is a departure from the normal procedure for voters in which a personal written application is necessary. Another change is that it is no longer required that servicemen be registered as voters; they need only to be 21 years of age and otherwise qualified.

Although it may appear surrounded with red tape, the new procedure at least assures that men and women in service will have the opportunity vote on Nov. 4. Under conditions existing in World War II those fighting for their country could not participate in the presidential election.

Now the responsibility rests with the relatives of those in service. They must make application for ballots. Michigan has done its part in assuring its servicemen they are given a proper chance to cast their ballots.

It is imperative that relatives act quickly in making application. Ballots should reach men and women in service at least 45 days before election day, Nov. 4.

The importance of voting cannot be minimized. Every citizen has a responsibility to vote and help bring this country out from behind a cloud of international doubt as to whether ours is an active and working republic.

All the major democracies within recent years, the eligible voters in the United States failed most miserably to exercise their franchise as free men and women.

In 1948's presidential election, only 51 per cent of the eligible citizens voted in the United States, compared to Australia's 96 per cent and Great Britain's 83 per cent in 1951, Sweden's 80 per cent in 1950, Western Germany's 75 per cent and Canada's 74 per cent in 1949.

This year it is doubly important to the future of this nation and the world that every citizen vote in the selection of the next president of the United States. Certainly the men and women in the armed forces should have the opportunity to vote. That can be accomplished with the prompt cooperation of their relatives here at home.

They should make application now for a ballot for their serviceman. To delay may be too late.

Consumer Determines Commodity Prices

FOR the first time since 1941, retail trade as a whole shows a relationship to the nation's overall economic activity comparable to that prevailing before the last world war.

That is the gist of an analysis recently made by the Institute of Life Insurance. The analysis was based on Department of Commerce statistics showing the relationship between the annual volume of retail store sales and the gross national product from 1929 to now.

The Institute said, "What these figures tend to confirm is what has been becoming apparent for some time—that the war-caused era of shortages has been replaced by a more normal type of demand in which prices and consumer decisions when and whether to buy are of primary importance."

In essence, therefore, barring unforeseen developments, the American economy has reverted to its traditional competitive basis."

Today's consumer can see plenty of evidence of that fact with his own eyes. During and for some time after the war a great many commodities were in very short supply and some were almost nonexistent. It became a truism that anything was salable, no matter how shoddy it might be. The consumer had small choice when he went to market. Today the situation is utterly different. There is an abundance of practically all consumer goods, and in some lines supply is substantially greater than demand.

The result is that every merchant must fight for his trade. He must offer all possible inducements—better stocks, lower prices, more attractive services, and so on. The buyer again calls the tune.

Hundreds of babies are being entered in beauty contests—mainly because they are too young to object.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—It has been kept out of the war news, but some alarming reports have filtered back from Korea of serious friction between American GIs and South Korean natives. In some areas, the friction is so bad that local guerrillas, operating behind our lines, are not so much pro-Communist as anti-American.

For example, the Army has noticed a direct relation between the guerrilla raids and GI behavior. Too many GIs, rankled over being stuck in Korea, take their spite out on the natives. Result is that a few drunk and disgruntled GIs have been pushing and slapping the South Korean around in their own country. While they are in a decided minority and the great majority of GIs have worked well with the natives, this minority has seriously hurt general relations.

It has got so bad that President Syngman Rhee has given strict orders to South Koreans not to resist. So, instead of getting in trouble with the South Korean police, some natives—even including anti-Communists—slip off to join the guerrilla bands that raid American command posts and supply centers.

In one instance, all the Korean mess boys mysteriously disappeared from an American radar station several hours before a guerrilla raid. Yet not one took the trouble to tip off the GIs of the approaching danger. This is typical of the growing South Korean attitude toward Americans.

What is even worse, many South Koreans are taking out their resentment against the GIs by leaking security information to the Communist enemy.

As a result of this growing friction, the Army is tightening discipline and trying to teach more respect for our South Korean allies.

PAT McCARRAN'S RULE

It looks like crusty, cantankerous Senator McCarran of Nevada has suffered two defeats. On top of having his law partner defeated in the senatorial primary by young Tom McChesney, the White House has now held up appointment of a new McCarran-picked U. S. attorney for Nevada, James Johnson Jr., even after McCarran got him confirmed by the Senate.

It is almost unheard of for the White House to renege on an appointment after confirmation by the Senate, but this is what President Truman has done. And the silver-crested sojourner from Nevada is fit to be tired.

Here is the inside story of what happened.

Last summer, U. S. Judge Roger Foley in Las Vegas granted an almost unprecedented injunction against McCarran and a group of gamblers for a conspiracy to kill advertising in the Las Vegas Sun after that paper had criticized McCarran. In doing so, the judge remarked that he was turning the matter over to the U. S. attorney.

The U. S. attorney, Miles Pike, though appointed through Senator McCarran, had shown recent signs of independence. And, though it may have been pure coincidence, suddenly, on July 1, Pike resigned. Earlier that day his family had no inkling his resignation was pending, nor did the Justice Department. The only man who seemed to know it was Senator McCarran. For, a few hours later, McCarran announced that he was appointing James Johnson, one of his political henchmen, to the key post dealing with federal prosecution.

WHY THE HURRY

McCarran proceeded to rush Johnson through the Senate in record time. His name was announced July 1, put before the Judiciary Committee July 3, and confirmed July 4. Normally, important appointments of this kind are delayed 10 days for an FBI report, but McCarran seemed to be in an awful hurry.

He was in such a hurry that doubt now exists as to whether Johnson's name actually was ever sent to the Senate by the White House. Inquiries at the White House at the time brought a reply that there was no record of Johnson's appointment.

At any rate, the White House since then has held up Johnson's certificate of appointment. Until the President signs it, he cannot serve. Two months have dragged by, and Pike, the man who resigned so suddenly is still U. S. attorney in Nevada, while Johnson, the man appointed so suddenly, is officially suspended in midair.

It looks as if the President had got wise to Senator McCarran.

SS UNITED STATES

Only passengers to brave the dining-room when the SS United States was caught in the recent hurricane were glamor girls Roberta Regan, wife of the congressman from Midland, Texas, and Evie Robert, wife of the former treasurer of the Democratic national committee. They stuck out the storm but they had to be lashed to their chairs.

While the Queen Elizabeth and Mauretania hove to, the new luxury liner proceeded ahead at only slightly reduced speed, with the result that most passengers, including Margaret Truman, wedged themselves into berths.

Mrs. Robert, appearing in the salon, tipped the accordion player $2, told him to play the following: "Stormy Weather," "Sailing, Sailing," "Red Sails in the Sunset," "Shrimp Boats are Coming," and "Bell Bottom Trousers." Then even the accordion player got sick.

PERMIT NORMAL ACTIVITIES

The trend today is not only to permit but to encourage those who have epilepsy and are under good management, to lead reasonably normal lives and take part in normal activities to an increasing degree. It seems almost cruel to do anything else. Her parents might get some useful information from a little pamphlet called "Epilepsy—The Ghost Is Out of the Closet" published by Public Affairs Committee, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y. (10 cents), or from some of the publications of the National Association to Control Epilepsy, 22 E. 67th Street, New York 21, N. Y.

The most important thing, of course, is to establish the exact cause of the convulsions and to find out how much this happy youngster can safely do.

To the Victor—the Backwash

By CLINT DUNATHAN

OF HUMAN DRAMA—A number of little human dramas were enacted at the opening of school. Some of them are continuing.

The little human dramas are the youngsters who openly rebel when the time comes for them to enter Kindergarten. Reason for their stubborn resistance is seldom known to the parents and is often unexplainable by the child.

We observed one mother coaxing her little hopeful to go off willingly to the school house.

"All boys and girls go to school," said Mother.

"I don't wanna!" wailed the child, breaking into tears.

"But you're a big girl now—and big girls go to school," pleaded Mother.

"I don't wanna go to school."

"But darling, you must go to school. The teacher is nice and you'll like her."

The child clinched the debate with a repetition of the negative and Mother turned helplessly toward home. With a quick brightening the child brushed away the tears and smilingly observed, "I don't like school!"

MEETING THE CHALLENGE—Parents have been known, in a fit of exasperation, to pick up the reluctant child and carry him bodily into the schoolhouse.

There the future honor student, with shrinking glance and frightened screams, ran around the room looking for a way out of the trap.

Sometimes they calm down and become cooperative, more often than not they must be removed from the room for the benefit of morale. A child's fright is sometimes contagious and a whole roomful of youngsters can start whooping it up in chorus.

Teachers usually encourage parents to leave promptly, for the longer Mama stays the more little Agatha yearns for the accustomed security of her home.

SITTING IT OUT—Teachers are trained to meet the challenge of the reluctant child and always win the child's confidence in the end. This is accomplished by understanding and patience—with patience a most important factor.

One Escanaba teacher will recall the small boy, just starting school, who refused to participate in any of the class activities.

As soon as he came through the door he rushed to the teacher's desk, threw himself on the floor beneath it, and used the cubbyhole for a hideout.

For more than a week the teacher ignored him as best she could, considering that he was really underfoot and difficult to ignore. Then one day he peeked out and grinned at her. She smiled back, saying nothing.

Next day when he came to school he sat at a desk. Teacher had won but she never even mentioned it. She just stretched her legs and sighed with relief.

THE STRANGE ILLNESS—Just before school starts and at certain times thereafter it is not uncommon for some children to develop strange sudden illness.

They have vague aches and pains on awakening in the morning, complain of loss of appetite (guaranteed to frighten even the most skeptical parent), and say they don't feel like going to school.

If the symptoms are ignored, 99.44 per cent of the cases recover amazingly fast. Suspicious parents will find their children are most likely to develop mysterious illness at a time when school is just starting or later when tests are scheduled.

PAVING THE WAY—Experienced parents and educators agree that a child should be psychologically prepared to enter school.

The need for this is indicated by the fact that the first-born in families is more reluctant to start school than the children who follow. The younger children observe older brothers and sisters going off to school daily and take the experience for granted.

Often all that is needed is for the parent to talk school plans to the child, to walk past the school building and say, "Here is where you and Jenny Lou will go to school." If Jenny Lou's mother is in on the plan the result is usually satisfactory.

Kite Is First Non-Rigid Heavier-Than-Air Craft

By RICHARD KLEINER

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Santa Claus, that talented toy designer, is getting an assist this year from applied aerodynamics and a man at the wind tunnel.

The result of all this scientific work is a new kind of kite, which Santa may be bringing to little boys by this Christmas. It's a completely new concept in flying wastepaper, and might almost make kite-flying easy on fathers.

The main feature of the new invention is that it's non-rigid, the wind tunnel man's way of saying that it has no sticks. The inventor, Francis Rogallo, of Hampton, Va., goes even further and says it's the world's first non-rigid, heavier-than-air craft.

Rogallo is chief of a wind tunnel branch of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics' stability research division. He stuck out the storm but they had to be lashed to their chairs.

While the Queen Elizabeth and Mauretania hove to, the new luxury liner proceeded ahead at only slightly reduced speed, with the result that most passengers, including Margaret Truman, wedged themselves into berths.

Mrs. Robert, appearing in the salon, tipped the accordion player $2, told him to play the following: "Stormy Weather," "Sailing, Sailing," "Red Sails in the Sunset," "Shrimp Boats are Coming," and "Bell Bottom Trousers." Then even the accordion player got sick.

The kite interest is left over from his boyhood. He always was a kite-flier, but he was depressed by the conventional kites' ease of breakage and inability to perform fancy maneuvers. So he began working on a new type of kite.

The kite interest is left over from his boyhood. He always was a kite-flier, but he was depressed by the conventional kites' ease of breakage and inability to perform fancy maneuvers. So he began working on a new type of kite.

After many wind tunnel tests and faulty pilot models, he came up with the one he's now making, which looks like a large bandanna nylon line. That's the full equipment, that and a small boy to make it go.

The main body of the kite, the plastic square, is limp and floppy. But with a little wind, it billows like a parachute. Its construction, in fact, is a lot like that of a 'chute, except it's engineered to go up instead of down.

There's a nylon tail, to stabilize the kite, and a stick to hold the plastic square.

With a little practice, and favoring breezes, it can do loops, soar straight up, nose dive, or hover stationary. And it has no sticks to snap or snap the paper, and the plastic is difficult to tear. But there's still not much that can be done if you fly it into a tree.

Rogallo is making the kite in three sizes, with the largest one theoretically capable of carrying a man aloft. Nobody has yet tested out that feature, however.

Mrs. Rogallo, who has assisted her husband throughout the kite's development, is rather glad that the experimental days are over. There was a time, as research grew feverish, when the Langley Field wind tunnel wasn't enough

To do tests at night, Rogallo turned the house into a wind tunnel, too. A big electric fan supplied the wind, and the doorway between the sun porch and the living room was the tunnel. Keeping some doors open and some closed made the wind rush through the residential tunnel at just the right speed for indoor kite testing.

But now the kite is a reality, and the winds have died down at the Rogallos' house.

Let us leave a little darkness for the lover and his lass.—Chelsea (England) Councilor Mrs. Margery Thompson, protesting an electric advertising sign along the Thames waterfront.

Maybe it would be a good idea if the management let women keep their hats on during one half of a movie double feature.

Absent A Year, Venus Returns

ANN ARBOR—Venus is coming, folks! Watch for her. After an absence of a year, Venus is again emerging as the "evening star" and may be seen near the western horizon in the early twilight, setting about an hour after the sun, according to Miss Hazel M. Losh, associate professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan.

This brightest of planets is continually increasing its distance from the sun in the sky, moving farther and farther east, Prof. Losh says. Consequently, it may be more easily seen throughout the fall months as it appears higher and higher in the evenings western sky.

The astronomer indicates fall will actually arrive September 22 at 9:24 p. m. That's the time the sun reaches the autumnal equinox and crosses the equator, bringing spring to those south of it.

The sun reaches an altitude of about 50 degrees at noon in September, but decreases to less than 25 degrees by December. These oblique rays of the sun and its shorter daily path account for the colder weather.

The constellation of Pegasus, the Winged Horse, is well placed for observation in the east this month. Rising around sunset and well above the horizon after dark, its chief interest lies in "The Great Square" or "Big Diamond." It is one of the stellar landmarks, Miss Losh indicates, being about 15 degrees on a side and composed of fairly bright stars.

AS WE LIVE

WP AS WE LIVE EPT. 12 Troublesome In-Law's Lies Should Be Taken Casually

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D. There are times when the best thing to do is to shut your eyes and ears. One of them is when you know a person is telling lies to stir up trouble or to focus attention upon herself:

(Q) "My problem is one of the most common and yet one of the most annoying. My mother-in-law spends her time thinking up things to say about her children. I gather she has always done this. Usually we overlook her stories but sometimes it is hard to do. Her lies cause many hard feelings among her children. Often, when the family is together, I feel like cracking the nut open, but I'm not sure this would stop it. What do you suggest we do?"

(A) Try to convince all the younger members of the family that their mother or mother-in-law, as the case may be, is a troublemaker and agree to ignore her stories.

This would be the way to "crack the nut open." It would do little or no good to stir up trouble when your mother-in-law is around. This would only antagonize her and perhaps cause your husband and some of her other children to rally to her defense, defeating your whole purpose and causing even more trouble.

Surely by now all her children and her in-laws must realize what her tricks are. I am surprised that you or the others get upset. By now, it should be an old story to all of you.

I wouldn't bank on a change in her. She is too old and, as you say, she has been doing this for years.

But that should not spoil the relationship you have with the other members of the family. As a matter of fact it often brings people closer together when they rally to the defense of another whom they know is being unfairly treated.

Dentist Gives Tips On Use Of False Teeth

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Need some tips on how to learn to eat with false teeth—even corn on the cob and apples?

Dr. Arvin W. Mann, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., told the American Dental Association today the process "might be likened to learning to drive a car or to cook."

Here's the procedure:

Learn to tolerate false teeth before trying to chew with them.

Start on soft foods.

Add coarse foods as soon as pressure on gums can be tolerated.

As for apples and corn on the cob, Dr. Mann said, the denture wearer will bite in reverse of the way persons with natural teeth do. The food should not be pulled outward or the dentures will be dislodged, he said.

Rita Hayworth Takes Vacation In Europe

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Rita Hayworth probably will sail for Europe Sept. 19 but she probably won't see her husband, Prince Aly Khan.

This carefully qualified disclosure was made yesterday by Miss Hayworth's secretary, who explained that the trip is intended strictly as a vacation. The prince visited her in Hollywood recently, trying for a reconciliation.

At last, I am out of bed, and able to get around the house with the use of a cane thanks to O-JIB-WA BITTERS. It's too bad that everybody suffering with rheumatism and arthritis doesn't know of your wonderful medicine."

Sparkman Sees No Hope In GOP

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Sen. John J. Sparkman said last night the West cannot look to the Republican party for help on its reclamation projects.

"Go to the record and see what your 80th Congress did to your reclamation projects," the Democratic nominee for vice president told a party rally.

On a one-day visit to Utah, Sparkman made three speeches here and a fourth in Ogden within eight hours. He was scheduled to fly to Chicago early today.

In all his speeches, Sparkman hammered on the theme "we never had it so good."

In Ogden, he told a crowd of 200 on the courthouse steps that he had found a new slogan in the West, "Harry and Ike — they think alike."

He said the political views of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican nominee for president, and President Truman were almost the same.

no worse."

He, himself, has fought for clean government.

"I do not, I have not, nor will I condone, excuse or explain away wrong-doing or moral obliquity in public office, whoever the guilty or wherever they are stationed. I have had the satisfaction of firing and prosecuting a good many, and I mean from both parties."

Not All In Headlines

3. Rascality is not confined to government.

"When you realize that American private business is swindled out of more than a billion dollars each year by its employees, from clerks to executives, it is not too remarkable, however deplorable, that government occasionally should be swindled."

4. Graft and thievery are not the only forms of corruption.

"Perhaps the proper description is not 'corrupt' but 'expedient' for the legislator who will vote for all kinds of special interest bills to catch or hold some votes. Call that what you will, condone it as you please, even profit from it as you do now and then, its cost to your is infinitely greater than all of this thievery and rascality that captures the headlines."

5. Special interest groups can damage good government.

"Sound government ends when the leaders of special groups call the tune, whether they represent capital, labor, farmers, veterans, pensioners or anyone else."

Good Men Reluctant

The basic formula for good government, Stevenson said, is a higher standard of general public morals, plus a serious and continuing interest in politics between election years.

"A large percentage of us pay no attention to politics and to government for three years . . . and then turn exclusively to other concerns until the time rolls around again when we must once more clamorously assure the national salvation."

He said, too, that there are "tens of thousands" of honest, efficient public officers. The "criticism, abuse and ingratitude," Stevenson added, is making it more difficult to bring good people into government.

Jailbreakers Rob Diner, Hold Seven In Family Captive

HAMBURG, Pa. (AP) — Three far-ranging jailbreakers held up a roadside diner today, fled with $240 and burst through a police roadblock after holding a family of seven captive for 19 hours in a suburban Philadelphia home.

Victim of the robbery in this east central Pennsylvania town about 65 miles from Philadelphia, and members of the family held captive, identified the men to police as Elmer Schuer, 21, of Chicago, Joseph Nolen, 26, and his brother Ballard, 22, of Kentucky.

Ceiling Raised On Superior Ore

WASHINGTON (AP) — The OPS yesterday granted a 75 cents-a-ton increase in the ceiling price of merchant iron ore produced in the Lake Superior district of Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Michigan.

Mesabi non-bessemer ore, $9.05 a gross ton; Mesabi bessemer ore, $20; old range non-bessemer ore, $9.30; old range bessemer ore, $9.45; high phosphorus ore, $9.05.

Senator Taft And Eisenhower Team Up For Campaign

Saying that he, himself, would speak "on a national broadcast and speak anywhere to the extent of my ability," Taft urged all Americans "who have confidence in my judgment" to support the Republican ticket.

He said he and General Eisenhower agreed "to reduce drastically government expenditures" to the point where the federal budget would be down to $70,000,000,000 in the fiscal year of 1854 and $60,000,000,000 in the following fiscal year.

No Slap At Dewey

He said he had not issued a call for his supporters to back Eisenhower earlier because he thought it best to wait until he had discussed the whole situation with Eisenhower and reached agreement with him on the principles which will be followed.

In his statement, Taft said, "I am completely satisfied that Eisenhower will give the country an administration expanding liberty and freedom for all."

Asked about a report that he would ask for a pledge in writing from the General that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and former ECA administrator Paul Hoffman would not play a large part in the General's administration, Senator Taft replied:

"It is not so. I did not seek that pledge."

Feudal Estate Law Abolished In Egypt

By ED POLLAK

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Premier Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib's reform Cabinet today approved legislation ending another of Egypt's feudal institutions—the wakfs.

This is a system established under Moslem law by which a person can bequeath an estate so that heirs and beneficiaries may receive the income but cannot sell or otherwise dispose of the estate itself.

Six Million Acres

It is estimated that about one-fourth of Egypt's farmland and buildings are administered under this system. The nation has about six million arable acres.

The wakfs are handled by a government ministry. Some are devoted to charities and institutions under Cabinet supervision. The reform government's proposed law would retain the charity estates.

Liquidation of the wakf estates was considered essential to the success of Naguib's plans to limit farm ownership to 200 acres per person. Persons owning more than 200 acres of land would have been barred from selling the excess if these were constituted as wakfs.

Suspects Pensioned Off

Critics of the system long have contended that the wakfs were a major obstacle in the path of improving the country's economic standards. Under it, they declared, huge estates remained the hereditary property of relatively few wealthy families.

Many of the most important wakf estates were under the control of ex-King Farouk, who was ousted July 26 by Naguib's military coup, and other members of the royal family.

In another step, the government decided to pension off all government officials suspected of corruption even though there were no charges or proof against them. Once pensioned off, they would be immune from prosecution.

Jordan had protested against previous attempts to plow the area, which United Nations representatives who are supervising the Palestine truce have ruled is Israeli territory.

Mrs. Captain Kidd Was Real Tycoon, New Book Reveals

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor
Today's highly emancipated lady bankers and corporation presidents had nothing on the petticoat tycoons of old New York in the year 1685.

Some of these bonneted lasses bossed whole fleets of ships, influenced the world balance of trade and cleaned up on a little discreet piracy on the side.

These stimulating bits of history in the rights-for-women annals are set down by Dunbar M. Hinrichs in his just-published novel, "Mrs. Captain Kidd."

Third Husband at 21

Hinrichs, who worked out the comprehensive automobile insurance policy now in general use, retired from General Motors Insurance Company at the age of 43 to devote himself to writing. After his daughter, Nancy, voiced a burning interest in pirates, he delved into research on the life and times of Captain Kidd and discovered that the bold captain's wife was even a more colorful figure than he.

The demure but iron-willed Sarah married Captain Kidd at the age of 21 — and he was her third husband. Says Hinrichs:

"That gives you a general idea of the pace of life back in pre-revolutionary New York. The ladies then were fully as active and wielded just as much influence on affairs as they do now — even though they did not vote and many could not read or write."

No Illegal Piracy

Mrs. Captain Kidd was one of the latter, but the fact that she could not sign her name did not deter her from amassing vast wealth and property, and sitting in on the inner councils of political plotting of the day.

Even though he finally was tried for piracy and hanged for murder in England, Captain Kidd was not a pirate, says Hinrichs, but sailed as a duly licensed privateer under the flag of England, and when he seized a ship's cargo it was always from the fleet of a nation with which England was at war.

FLUID MOTION, subtly controlled, in below-the-waistline fullness makes news in the season's outstanding afternoon-into-evening dresses of soft textured wools. Here Pauline Trigere presents a beautifully cut, dramatically simple fashion in Forstmann's Navy chiffon broadcloth of virgin wool. Snug fitting waist is high and unbelted. Soft cascading fullness in skirt falls entirely from one side — is emphasized with single march of tiny self-covered buttons. At right, Frances Sider offers a sparkling example of 1952's favored afternoon-into-evening separates. In snow white wool jersey, all-over-embroidered with scroll pattern of silver metallic yarn, this two-piece fashion has fitted basque jacket with low novelty-cut neckline — wide-whirling skirt, smoothly fitted at hip line. Both dresses were recently selected by the Wool Bureau as outstanding fashions for 1952.

Board Studies School Millage

A survey of school millage in 16 Upper Peninsula cities, compiled by A. F. Hall, superintendent of Manistique public schools, was studied by the local Board of Education at a regular meeting this week.

The survey revealed that eight of the schools had a millage of 7 or better for operation expenses voted by county tax allocation boards. Several of the schools had extra millage voted by taxpayers for operational purposes in addition to the tax board allocation, bringing the average operational millage of the 16 communities to 7.6.

Highest millage for school operation was reported in Crystal Falls where, in addition to 7 mills approved by the tax allocation board, the schools had an extra 8 mills voted by taxpayers.

The local school millage is 5.

Communities surveyed in addition to Crystal Falls included Ontonagon, Marquette, Norway, Munising, Gwinn, Kingsford, Hancock, Escanaba, Menominee, Gladstone, Sault Ste. Marie, Iron River, Newberry, and Calumet.

The board also approved a driver training program at the high school, to commence as soon as a new car has been made available by the Lundstrom Chevrolet Company. Only juniors will take the course this year, seniors having had driver instruction last year. Instructor will be Stanley Carlson.

The start of a hot lunch program at Central school on Nov. 1 was approved by the board which has engaged the services of Mrs. L. E. MacDonald to prepare meals.

The acceptance of bids to furnish furnace oil at Riverside school also was approved.

The superintendent reported that two kindergarten teachers had been reassigned. Miss Irene Karasti will teach kindergarten full time at Lakeside and Mrs. Edmund LaFave will teach half days at Riverside and Central. Mrs. Benjamin Gero remains as full time kindergarten teacher at Lincoln.

New Father Walks Right Through Glass

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (UPI)—A new father, on his way to see his new daughter, walked right through the new glass front at Washington County Hospital yesterday.

Charles B. Carter explained bright lights shining in the hospital lobby kept him from seeing there was a glass panel there.

Mother and daughter are doing fine. Father, well, he'll be all right after a few cuts heal.

Issue Special Stamp To Commemorate 500th Anniversary Of Bible

A 3-cent stamp commemorating the 500th anniversary of the printing of the first book, the Holy Bible, from movable type by Johann Gutenberg will be first placed on sale at Washington, D. C., on Sept. 30, 1952, it is announced by the Rev. A. Barton Brown, of the Manistique Ministerial Association.

This date was selected to coincide with the national observance of Bible Week. On the evening of Sept. 30 millions of Americans will assemble to honor the Holy Bible, and on this date the new and revised Standard Version of both the Old and New Testaments will be released to the public.

Catholics, Protestants and Jews will cooperate in various cities to focus attention on the vital contribution the Bible has made to the Christian heritage and American national life.

In Manistique special services are scheduled by both Protestants and Catholics in observance of Bible Week.

The stamp will be 0.84 by 1.44 inches in dimension, arranged horizontally, printed by the rotary process, electric-eye perforated and issued in sheets of 50. The color of the stamp will be announced later. An initial printing order of 110,000,000 Gutenberg stamps has been authorized.

An unfurled scroll forms the background for the over-all design of the stamp. A vignette of "Gutenberg Showing a Proof to the Elector of Mainz" appears on the left half of the stamp. The right half is composed of the following lettering, reading from top to bottom: "1452-1952" in white face Gothic; "500th anniversary of the printing of the first book, the Holy Bible, from movable type, by Johann Gutenberg" in white face modified Gothic. The denomination "3c", also in white face modified Gothic, is framed in a dark square in the bottom right hand corner.

The original mural, which was used for the central subject of the stamp, is in the New York Public Library and was painted by Edward Lansing.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of this stamp may send addressed envelopes to the Postmaster, Washington, D. C., with money order remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed. An enclosure of medium weight should be placed in each envelop and the flap either sealed or turned in. The outside envelope to the postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers."

Choral Club To Meet Monday

The Manistique Choral Club will hold its first meeting and rehearsal at 7:30 Monday evening in the high school auditorium, it is announced by Mrs. James H. Fyvie, director.

Any person in Manistique interested in singing is urged to attend the opening rehearsal. The choral club is not a club in the normal sense; it is rather a group of choral singers who unite their voices in presenting an annual Christmas musical program in the community, Mrs. Fyvie pointed out.

There are no dues, no try outs, no fees of any kind attached to the organization. "We want the singers of the community to come out for rehearsals and take part in our Christmas program", Mrs. Fyvie said.

The newlyweds will make their home in Iron Mountain.

Maki's Service team posted the greatest softball record in history this season in Munising. The team, sponsored by Hella and Charles Maki, won trophies in every tournament in which they competed. Maki's coped with the Munising Softball League title and the city tournament crown, won the district Class B championship here and the U. P. title at Marquette and was runner-up in the state tournament. Clifford "Iron Arm" Johnson, the team's only hurler who pitched as many as three games a day in tourney competition, was largely responsible for the team's success.

Joey Stambulich, who played a lot of softball and baseball for Gladstone teams in the past, had a great season in Milwaukee softball circles this year. Joey, who lives in West Allis, plays outfield and also pitches for the Solvay Coke team in one of the Milwaukee leagues. The team won two league titles, then qualified for a division tournament and won it. Last week his team played and beat another division champion for one of the several all-Milwaukee championships. Joey collected three hits in that game and drove in the winning runs. On the mound this season he turned in several shutouts.

Leo Vinje, Escanaba Golf Club's "Old Master", is still at it. Leo, who could challenge Soo's Phil Colasanti for number of years of competitive golf, shot a steady 39-38 this week. Paul Wohlen's 39 was one of the week's highlights. Paul has often been in the low 40's but this is the first time in many years that he's carded under 40. Tim Cassidy last week had his lows of 46 and 48 on successive days. Chet Morton's cronies are still complaining about the birdie two he had on the short third hole. He clubbed his tee shot, the ball bounced on the two-root span across the creek and then rolled up on the green from where he dropped the putt for a deuce.

Don Lund, the Detroit Tiger rookie called up from Buffalo in the International League, is a native of Ishpeming. He moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lund, to Detroit some years back. Lund played baseball at the University of Michigan before joining Buffalo.

One of Soo's greatest sports figures of recent years died last weekend. Ludlow M. "Lud" Bailey, 30, was an active figure in Sault sports, playing football, softball, baseball and hockey. He had been ill for several years.

Stambough, one of the Upper Peninsula Class C basketball powers, may move up into Class B competition next winter. The Hilltoppers have an enrollment of 330 students and if that number is maintained by Oct. 1 Stambough will be in the Class B ranks. Enrollment of 325 or more students constitutes a Class B school, according to regulations of the Michigan State High School Athletic Association.

Spartan Quarterbacks Pass For Touchdowns

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP)—A potent display of passing by his two quarterbacks was probably the best birthday present that Michigan State football Coach Biggie Munn received yesterday.

Munn was 44 yesterday.

"I took it a little easy on the squad because of the heat," he confided after practice. But to observers on the sidelines said it looked as if the Michigan Staters were working real hard.

Wells Scores TD

The first string defensive line looked sharp. Both the first and second string offensive units were stopped cold when they attempted a ground attack.

Both squads made their only scores through the air.

Quarterback Tom Yewcik connected with touchdown passes to Billy Wells of Menominee, Paul Pekker of Muskegon and Bert Zegers of Cadillac.

Willie Thrower lofted one to end Doug Bobo of Reed City, also good for a score.

Another cheering sight for Munn was the appearance in a scrimmage session of Flint halfback Leroy Bolden. Bolden has been sidelined by a cyst on his knee but it now appears that he will not have to undergo an operation that might put him out for the season.

Edwards Out

Meanwhile Jack Edwards, a very promising sophomore and son of end coach Earl Edwards, was ordered to give up football entirely.

Young Edwards, a defensive end who played high school ball at East Lansing and State College, Pa., suffered a slight brain concussion in scrimmage earlier this week.

It was the fifth concussion he has sustained since he went out for football. He was told it would be wiser to give up the sport than to risk permanent injury.

Line Is Not One Of Michigan's Problems

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan's VanderZeyde are racing for the center job.

To balance the loss of veteran ends Fred Pickard and Russ Osterman, Michigan has more than half a dozen prime candidates.

Good Ends

Capt. Merritt Green and Lowell Perry give the Wolverines a pair of top-notchers, capably bolstered by junior Thad Stanford, sophomore Jim Bates and veteran Gene Knutson. Also well in the picture are Bob Dingman, Bob Topp and John Johnson.

Osterman is particularly pleased as the depth in the line may permit him to use Dinger Zatkoff exclusively as a linebacker.

Currently competing for the other linebacker spots are Ted Topor, number one quarterback, and tackle Jim Balog.

In unseasonably hot weather, Michigan's first string backfield demonstrated some scoring punch in yesterday's scrimmage.

Directed by Topor, the backfield moved dependably down the field on the line plumes of sophomore fullback Fred Baer and the running of Frank Howell and Ted Kress. Both Kress and Topor came up with some good passing.

Stars Dot Big Ten Teams, Title Hinges On Key Men

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten is

loaded with experienced talent for its man-hungry platoon-type football machines but chances are the 1952 championship will be decided by four or five key men.

If a fullback recovers from an illness . . . if a brilliant runner can be developed . . . if a couple of 1951 sensations continue to sparkle . . .

If any one of these things occur it could spell championship for a particular school.

Pre-season estimates favor Illinois, Wisconsin and Purdue, in that order, with Ohio State, Michigan and possibly Northwestern definite contenders. Some, but not too much, improvement is expected at Iowa, Indiana and Minnesota.

Spartans Not In

Michigan State, which won't be eligible for title competition until next year, ranks above any of the conference schools. The Spartans were voted the top team in the country in the recent Associated Press poll. Illinois placed fifth.

There have been the usual coaches' laments for departed 1951 heroes and moans about the paucity of 1952 material, but the truth is the Big Ten, manpower-wise, probably never had it so good.

A total of 221 lettermen have returned to the various squads. In addition, coaches can call on a horde of sophomores.

Illinois, the 1951 conference champ and Rose Bowl victor, has to be conceded favorite to repeat as titleholder.

Dinky Hole Is Toughie

By GEORGE BOWEN

BALTIMORE (AP)—Everybody talks about the big size of Mt. Pleasant's golf course, but the 132 players in the Eastern Open today worried as much about the comparatively dinky 17th hole.

More visions of victory dissipate on this 201-yard hole in sight of the clubhouse than on any other of the 18 stretched over 6,895 yards.

In yesterday's opening round of the 72-hole tourney, 56 of the players went over par three there. By contrast, the three leaders with scores of four-under par 68. Skeet Riegel of Tulsa, Bob Duden of Portland, Ore., and Johnny Bula of Verona, Pa., took the regulation number of strokes.

Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg, Fla., would have been in the first place tie if it weren't for the 17th. He was four strokes ahead of par with only two holes to go. He lost a stroke to the devilish 17th to wind up tied for second with Julius Bors of Mid Pines, N. C.

The 17th tee is on top of a hill looking down on a peanut-shaped green on a plateau and nestled against another hill. The tee shot has to go between two clumps of trees and over a creek to the green which is surrounded by traps.

The $15,000 tournament goes into its second round with the race wide open. Twenty players are only three strokes apart between the leading 68 and 71 scores.

Marciano's Weight Is Below Normal

GROSSINLER, N. Y. (AP)—Rocky Marciano's declining weight has his camp worried when only seven working days left before he fights heavyweight champion Jerry Joe Walcott for the title, Sept. 23 at Philadelphia. "Rocky weighs only 184 pounds," said Manager Al Weill. "We want him to fight at 187."

During 18 years of riding, the mounts of John Linus (Pony) McAtee earned $2,425,000.

BY HARRY STAPLER

DETROIT (AP)—Another untried, boyish-faced newcomer will pop into the Tiger lineup Saturday for the first time—now that Manager Fred Hutchinson's rookie formula has pushed the Tigers to a four-game winning streak.

And don't laugh at only four straight—the Tigers haven't done better all season.

Originally, Hutch figured on using rookie William (Bud) Black, promising righthander from San Antonio for relief with perhaps a starting assignment in the last week.

Newhouser Today

But now Black, who has never pitched to a major league batter, will start his first game for the Tigers Saturday against the Philadelphia Athletics.

And veteran Hal Newhouser, who has pitched to more than 12,000 major league batters, was to hurl in his 45th game for the Tigers today. He, too, was to face the Athletics.

The Tigers have twice won four straight. All victories in the latest string came since Shortstop Harvey Kuenn and companions reported from the farm clubs.

Kuenn, who hit in all six games since reporting for a 363 average, singled home the first run in yesterday's come-from-behind 5-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Veteran Walt Dropo's pair of homers, rookie Bill Tuttle's infield grounder and pinchhitter Jim Delsing's tie-breaking eighth inning single drove in the other runs.

20 Years Old

Virgil Trucks started but was relieved in the eighth after giving up three runs. Dave Madison pitched to only one batter in retiring the side and gained credit for the victory.

Black is a 20-year-old 6-foot 3-inch righthander acquired in the huge waiver deal with the St. Louis Browns. He won 12 and lost eight this year at San Antonio and has a 35-21 three-year minor league record.

"I went to spring training with the Browns in 1951, but I never had a chance to pitch in a game," said Bud. "They didn't keep me around for the regular season." That year he won 20 games for Pine Bluff.

"This year I pitched two shutouts and in one game had a no-hitter going for six innings. But

Real Delight Top Favorite

By JOHN CHANDLER

NEW YORK (AP)—A dozen or more fillies and mares headed by Calumet Farm's Real Delight are expected to battle it out Saturday in the $50,000-added Beldame Handicap at Aqueduct.

Real Delight, top 3-year-old filly in the business right now and one of the leading money winning horses of 1952, has high weight of 126 pounds in the mile and one eighth event.

Ben Jones, the veteran Calumet trainer, hasn't said definitely the daughter of Bull Lea would start, but she has been working for the race at Belmont Park and they don't usually pass up the big ones.

The last time Real Delight started in New York was in May when she won the $50,000 Coaching Club American Oaks, and she'd be the favorite in the Beldame.

Louis B. Mayer's Princess Lydia, Alfred Vanderbilt's Next Move, Walter M. Jeffords' Kiss Me Kate, and Ogden Phipps' Busanda loom as the main rivals of the Calumet filly.

Trojans Travel Saturday Night

Second straight road game for the St. Joe Trojans is scheduled tomorrow when Coach Tom St. Germaine's squad faces the Ironwood gridiron for the opening kickoff against the Red Devils.

A squad of 21 Trojan gridlers will leave for Stambaugh at 4 tomorrow afternoon.

In their first meeting with Stambaugh, St. Joe will be looking for its first win of the season. The Gladstone Braves beat St. Joe 31-0 in their opener.

The Hilltoppers have a pair of 31-7 victories on the 1952 record to date, beating Neogaunee and Norway in the past two weeks.

Other squad members taking the trip will be Dick Moreau, Don LaChapelle, Arnold Henricksen, Leo-Roy Villeneuve, Bob Rademacher, Jim Weber, Bill Lancour, Stan Venne, Gary Guertin and Wayne LaFave.

MANISTIQUE—The Manistique Cardinals will meet the Cooks nine in an exhibition game at 2 p. m. Sunday at the fairgrounds diamond.

Manager Fred Lesica scheduled the clash in order to keep the Cardinals in tune for the play-off against the winner of the Fayette-Trenary game Sunday. Game receipts will be ear-marked for players.

Both Don Carlson and Al Adams will be used on the mound against Cooks. Because of a new edict issued by high school football coach Dick Bonitas, Bob McNamara, Emerald halfback, will not be in the Cards lineup Sunday. The rest of the lineup, however, will be unchanged.

The Cards are expecting tough opposition from Cooks whom they defeated by close 4-3 margins in two previous games this season. Cooks closed regular Bay de Noc season competition with four victories. Bert Lund will be on the hill for the visitors.

Mike Garcia Posts Fourth Straight Win

Cleveland Half Game Out

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cleveland's pennant drive and the Mike Garcia boom for most valuable players are swinging along hand in hand.

With "The Bear" boasting a string of 28 consecutive scoreless innings, the onrushing Indians yesterday crept within one half game of the idle New York Yankees.

Cleveland's eighth straight win, longest streak of the year in the American League, was a 1-0 job by Garcia who allowed only two Philadelphia singles. It was his seventh shutout.

Six weeks ago Bobby Shantz of the Philadelphia A's seemed to have a lock on the American League MVP award. He still is the favorite but Garcia is lining up a torchlight parade of supporters.

Five In Row

While little Bobby failed five times in a row, reaching for win No. 23, Garcia has produced four straight wins to make the 20-grade. He is the third 20-game winner in the league, joining teammate Early Wynn and Shantz.

Heading into the showdown one-game series with the Yanks Sunday, Garcia looms as the likely Cleveland starter. The Indians now have 13 to play, the Yankees 14 more games.

The Yanks aren't the only leaders looking over their shoulders.

Boyle Cuts Off 30 Pounds And Gloats

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What do you do with your old New Year's resolutions?

For years I used to write mine down the first of each January—and manage conveniently to lose them by the first of February. The natural result was out of sight, out of mind.

This spring, however, while cleaning out my dresser drawers I found a wrinkled, yellow sheet of paper. It was my New Year's resolutions for 1940, and the last paragraph read:

"...and promise to get my stripped weight down to 170 pounds, and be more obedient to my wife."

Frances, reading over my shoulder, said comfortingly:

"Well, Rover, you and Joe Stalin

Whirling Amusement Ride Goes Berserk

DENVER (AP)—The scene was the "Hurricane" concession at Lakeside Amusement Park with metal planes whirling in circles at the end of steel cables.

Alex Brunner, 35, who was at the controls, decided to step to the fence for a word with his wife, Mabel, 28. One of the plane wings struck him and knocked him flat. Mrs. Brunner ran to help him and another plane knocked her down. As both lay stunned, the planes kept spinning around with the riders helpless to halt them.

Finally, a bystander ducked under the whizzing planes and fiddled with the controls until he stopped them. The Brunners were taken to a hospital to patch up their head cuts.

Woman Lost At Sea Leaves Son $157,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Marin Machris Westbrook, lost from an air transport flying off the East Coast of South America, left her entire $157,000 estate to her son Robert, 12.

In admitting Mrs. Westbrook's will to probate yesterday, the court declared her legally dead. The will was dated Jan. 20, 1951.

A door of the airlines plane flew open last July 27 and Mrs. Westbrook was sucked out. The aircraft was flying at 12,000 feet.

Southern Gentlemen Promote Old Chivalry

ATLANTA (AP)—An aroused group of Southern gentlemen believes the South should rise again—on troleys, that is, when the ladies are standing.

The Order of Southern Gentlemen, Inc., has been granted a charter in Fulton Superior Court here to promote "appreciation of the characteristics of southern chivalry."

"There just isn't enough chivalry left in the South," observes one member. "You get on a trolley and all the men are sitting while the ladies are standing. It used to be the other way around."

Marine Corps League Calls For Atom Bomb

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A resolution calling for use of atomic bombs in Korea is scheduled to be proposed to delegates at the 29th annual National Convention of the Marine Corps League.

Paul Corbin, the league's national chief of staff, said in opening sessions of the convention that "A-bombs across the Yalu River" offer the only way to end the war in Korea. He predicted almost unanimous endorsement of the resolution later this week.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Sen. John Sparkman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, says he is in favor of government development of all great river valleys.

"I am in favor of government development of all great river valleys. It is virtually impossible for private enterprise to undertake such a large-scale development."

'Jazz Singer', 1927 Hit Will Be Filmed Again

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"You ain't heard nothin' yet, folks; listen to this."

Those words rank with "What hath God wrought?" in their importance to the entertainment industry. They were spoken almost two years ago by a blackfaced minstrel named Al Jolson in the first talking picture, "The Jazz Singer."

The picture premiered on Oct. 6, 1927, at the Warner Theater in New York. It revolutionized an industry.

Jolson Disappointed

"The Jazz Singer" is again being made by Warner Brothers. By a turn of fate, a number of men who worked on the original picture are today helping to make the new version. I asked some of them for their memories of the Jolson film.

"The picture almost wasn't made," remarked Harold McCord, who cut "The Jazz Singer" and is now head of the Warners cutting department. "Most people don't know that D. W. Griffith once tried to make a picture with Jolson. After Jolson saw the first couple of days' work on film, he was so disappointed that he took off for Europe and never returned to the picture."

"After watching the first few days of film for 'The Jazz Singer,' Jolson was again disappointed. He didn't realize that all of the film he saw of himself wouldn't be used. He was ready to quit. But we urged him to wait until he could see some of the film as it would appear in theaters."

"The Warner Brothers were desperate, because they had sunk all their money into the sound experiment. So I stayed up all night to cut enough of the picture for Jolson to see. He looked at it the next morning and agreed to stay. If
